

our great progenitor in the garden of Eden although it did prove to be a most ruinous speculation.

We are told that Abraham paid to Ephron for the cave of Machpelah, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchants. And thus we see that as far back as the day of the Father of the faithful, merchants were recognized as a distinctive class, and that the ages even to the present, merchants have played their parts and have had a place in the history of the times in which they have lived. The ancient cities of Tyre, Nineveh, Memphis, Carthage and Alexandria, owed their opulence, splendor and magnificence to their merchants, and what class of men, I would ask, in this our day, have contributed more to the progress of the world, than the masses of the people than the merchants. From the very nature of their business they are obliged to elbow and jostle their neighbors in the friction of every day.

It was said by an ancient philosopher, show me the birds of a country and I will tell you what are the characteristics of its citizens. No class of men comes in closer contact with the masses of the people than the merchants. From the very nature of their business they are obliged to elbow and jostle their neighbors in the friction of every day.

Then if they are intelligent, unselfish, large hearted, liberal minded, public spirited, their imprimatur upon the community is a guarantee to be of good use to the people. If they are not, they will go far towards creating and fostering a selfish and progressive public sentiment.

Just here, however, I would recognize and acknowledge the fact, that the merchants are not only closely allied with, but absolutely dependent upon, agricultural power. Give us prosperous farmers, and prosperous merchants, then, as a matter of course, the whole body politic prospers.

Sir, it does not become me to speak in praise of the merchants of Abbeville. I would remark, however, that the dream of our merchants for the last fifteen years has at last issued in reality, and we now have what we have earnestly longed for, a great iron highway, opening the way to the East and the West. By the advent of the G. C. & N. R. R. we are placed in distinct hearing of, and close communication with, the outlying world, and already we discern a new era in our activities. We have needed railroads to discover and bring before our eyes our natural capabilities, and with such advantages as the G. C. & N. R. R. gives us, may we not reasonably cherish the hope that the day is not far distant when Abbeville as a city will indulge in the luxuries of electric lights, street cars and free postal delivery. Let every man, woman and child within our borders feel that upon him or her is devolved the duty of doing something to advance the interests and up-building of the city, and then when we have worked and put into vigorous exercise all our pluck, push, perseverance and progressive bias, with nulla curia reformationis emblazoned upon our motto, soon, very soon, we will take the rank and position we are entitled to, alongside of our other Piedmont sisters, -Anderson, Spartanburg and Greenville.

"Abbeville, old Abbeville, heaven's blessings attend her. While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her. Her failings may scoff at, and cowards defame her. Our hearts swell with pride whenever we name her."

The Father of the New Railroad.

It is not strange for a father to have many children, but it is passing strange how many fathers claim the honor of the paternity of the G. C. & N. R. Road.

In Abbeville county alone there are perhaps not less than a dozen men who claim that highway as their own offspring.

Greenwood, we are sure, has not fewer than five-and perhaps many more.

Abbeville has her full share—one of whom is the editor of the Press and Banner.

A visitor at the recent banquet, put in his claim of paternity,—and a note was made of the claim.

Several other counties are yet to hear from. It is not improbable that there are some originators, founders, or builders of the road at Chester, Elberton, Athens, and other points.

When Mr. Robinson is heard from we should not be at all astonished, if he too did not put in some claim to the paternity of the great road.

There being so many claimants for the honor we shall not pretend to decide the question before all the claims are put in, and all the towns are heard from.

Under the circumstances then, we think it well to let each one go on thinking he had everything to do with it, even if historians should conclude to mention Mr. Robinson's name with it.

Candidly speaking, we do not understand how any one of us did more than attract attention to a route on which there was a demand for a road.

All the voting and vociferating we could do, didn't build the Cumberland Gap road, and will never build it, on the contemplated route over the mountains. There isn't money and property enough in all of Abbeville county to build five miles of railroad across the impenetrable Pink Beds of the mountains.

Of the $5,000,000 that will be spent to build the G. C. & N. Road, we haven't paid a cent, although we have promised a small sum. That small sum wasn't enough to build the bridge across Long Cane, or even to grade and trestle the road in the corporate limits of the town.

The fact is, that there arose a demand for the road, and with the creation of that demand the towns of Abbeville, Greenwood, Chester, and other places had about as much to do as did the man in the moon. As well give the founders of the towns credit for wisdom in selecting sites on the route, as to give the routes credit for building it. The fact that Abbeville, and not Due West, is on the road is a question of geography—only this, and nothing more.

WILL THIS BE ABBEVILLE?

It is said that we are to have an Express Office in Town, With Free Delivery.

Mr. C. V. Hammond, who has been in the employ of the C. & G. Railway for thirty years, has resigned the agency of the Abbeville depot, to take charge of the express office which will be in the store room in which his harness shop now is on the public square. His resignation is to take effect on the 20th of November, if agreeable to the Railroad Company, but certainly on the 1st of December.

When the express office is established express freight will be delivered free of drayage to the public square in this town.

Mr. Hammond will handle express freight on both roads.

The establishment of an express office on the public square will be a great convenience to the public, for which we may thank the G. C. & N.

We are not informed who will succeed Mr. Hammond as agent at this depot, but we believe the Railroads have a system of promotions, and it is therefore quite likely that some man already in the employ of the road will get the place.

The system of promotion obtains with the G. C. & N. and we will have at that depot an experienced man from some other place.

The kind of promotion is a good one, and a stimulus to worthy and struggling young men to strive for the higher offices. It is alike beneficial to employer and employee.

We learn that Mr. T. W. Coogler, operator at the public square, has applied for the place which Mr. Hammond will vacate. We know nothing as to whether or not he will get the place.

Notice.

When in need of a hat or bonnet, if you will call upon the you will find the very latest styles trimmed by one of the finest milliners that travel South, and you will get it at 30 per cent less than you did six years ago.

W. M. E. BELL.

Just received. Real plush wraps and jackets, cloth wraps and feather jackets, all from the manufacturers. R. M. Haddon & Co.

Just received. Another lot plush hats. Choice colors. R. M. Haddon & Co.

Just received. Round package of good Smoking Tobacco, and a pipe thrown in call at A. M. Hill & Sons.

A MEETING OF CITIZENS.

CALLED FOR FRIDAY NIGHT IN THE COURT HOUSE.

The Removal of Erskine College is Threatened, and We Must Act Now or Lose That Institution.

On consultation with some of the citizens of Abbeville it was thought that, in view of the threatened removal of Erskine College to Rock Hill, a public meeting should be held in the Court House to furnish an opportunity for the expression of public sentiment on this question.

The meeting is appointed for 7.30 o'clock Friday evening, 14th instant.

It is hoped that not only citizens of the town, but of the county at large will feel sufficient interest in the meeting to be present.

If Abbeville county wishes to keep the College, prompt and decided action is necessary. Come to the meeting on Friday night.

There will also be a meeting at Lower Long Cane for the same purpose on Saturday, the 15th, at 11.30 o'clock, and also one at Troy on Monday night at 7.30 o'clock.

Wm. Hood, Wm. Young, J. W. Wideman, R. S. Galloway, E. H. Devin, R. W. Haddon, J. E. Edwards, W. M. Grier, Committee.

THE REMOVAL OF ERSKINE COLLEGE.

A Stirring Appeal in Behalf of That Grand Old Institution.

GREENWOOD, S. C. Nov. 7th, 1890.

I believe the friends of education, especially of christian education, of Abbeville county are deeply interested in Erskine College. It is removed from Abbeville county would cause a moral, educational and material loss which we as patriotic citizens of the county should do our utmost to prevent. The College for more than half a century has been the pride of the State and a benediction to Abbeville county. The noble, self sacrificing, christian gentlemen who have long been actively identified with the highest and best interests of the county and their influence for good in their high moral character and education has been inconceivable. The danger of losing the college with the enriching, and elevating influence of its faculty is imminent.

It is not my purpose to extend this article. Reasons why Abbeville county should cling to Erskine college, and a mother would cling to her children, are numerous and potent to all.

I am reliably informed that citizens of the eastern part of the State are spending time and effort and money toward the removal of Erskine to Rock Hill. The College is literally being "moved to the block." Abbeville county must be a defender or else lose the property, moral and educational as well as material.

There are thousands of patriotic citizens and Christians of our denominations who esteem it not only a duty but a privilege to help our Associate Reformed brethren at Due West keep within our own borders this time-honored institution of learning. Let us assure all who read this brief statement that there is real danger of losing the College, and that prompt and generous action on our part now may save the college for the future.

I will be one outside of Due West to give $10. to the College upon condition that it be not removed from Abbeville county.

GEO. C. HODGES.

In Memory of W. Courtney McGee.

It is always a mournful pleasure to pay the last tribute of respect and affection to the dead, especially to those whose lives were worthy examples and who deserve more than a passing notice. And so, when the announcement was made on the 3rd of this month, that the great and good W. Courtney McGee, who had been a member of Walnut Grove church at the age of 12 years, and was a devoted Christian throughout his life. He graduated at Erskine College in 1888, and then attended the High School in Edgely county during the year 1889, and then upon examination secured a scholarship in the Normal University at Nashville, Tenn., where he was taken sick, and his death was a result of the fever from that dread disease consumption, which had laid its blighting hand upon him. He had begun a life full of promise, and bid fair to reach the goal of a successful career. The light and joy of home and fond parents hearts, which never again can be cheered and made glad by his cheerful voice.

Alas! that death should have upon him like an untimely foe, and blight for this life, his young manhood! We trust his freed spirit has reached the pearly shore, and has joined that happy heavenly band and strolls to-day through the streets of glory. The night birds will sing a lone requiem, while the mellow moonbeams will fall gently upon his peaceful face of rest, while his spirit gladsly roams through the sweet fields of Eden, the eternal paradise of God—

Where no chilling winds,
Nor poisonous breath,
Where each day is a beautiful shore,
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.

With these few thoughts we leave our friend to the precious hush of that sweet rest, from which he will arise to the glories of the blest.

ED. A. M.
Cokesbury, S. C., Nov. 10, 1890.

Tribute to Memory of David Morrah.

At the meeting of the Board of Trustees of Lethe Institution, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, that since our last meeting death has removed one of our number, David Morrah, after many years of active service as Trustee of Lethe Institution, and the survivors desire to express their sympathy for the loss sustained by the college as a Board and personally.

Be it resolved, that in the death of David Morrah this Institution has sustained a severe loss, and the Board has been deprived of the services of one whose earnest zeal, for the interest of the institution, and whose sound judgment in the direction of its affairs has made him a useful and valued member.

That by the death of David Morrah the county has lost a valued citizen, and the community an esteemed and useful member.

That we tender to his family our sincere sympathy in their bereavement, and that the Secretary do furnish them with a copy of these resolutions, and that they be published in the county papers.

E. E. McAN, Chairman.

Wm. H. PARKER, Secretary.

Tribute of Respect.

HODGES, S. C., Nov. 8, 1890.

Editor Press and Banner.

At a called meeting of the Hodges Farmers Alliance, No. 626, on Nov. 1, 1890, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our brother and friend Basil Davis.

Therefore be it resolved, that by the death of Basil Davis the Alliance has lost a true friend and brother, the country a good citizen, and the community a good neighbor.

That a blank page in our minute book be inserted in his memory.

That the members of the Alliance be requested to publish these resolutions, and that the Secretary be instructed to furnish the family of deceased with a copy of the same with the sympathies of our entire body.

J. F. Hodges, J. C. Mundy, W. M. Wright, Committee.

Calkins Tonic is guaranteed to cure chills and fever, for sale at Speed's Drug Store.

The prettiest line of Christmas goods you ever saw at Speed's Drug Store.

We carry a full line of men's flannel overshirts for winter wear. P. Rosenberg & Co.

Highest market price given at Old Mill Road cotton seed.

GREENWOOD'S JOTTINGS.

Political and Otherwise—Misfortune to a Printer—The Boycott Still an Idea—Is This a Free Country?

GREENWOOD, Nov. 10.

Election scintillations a very few hereabouts.

Mr. E. J. Plowden is up from an attack of colic.

Mrs. David Boone, died at her home last Sunday night. Her husband and several small children who survive her, have the sympathy of the entire community.

Supt. Johnson of the oil mill had his foot severely crushed by one of the presses last week. He is now out on crutches.

The congregation of the Baptist church have recalled the Rev. G. H. Carter for his whole time next year.

A car load of cotton from Laurens, was discovered on fire when the freight train reached here Saturday night. The car and fifteen bales of cotton are almost a total loss. Cause unknown.

A telegraph line over the G. C. & N. is now in operation, with an office at their depot, and also up town.

If we were asked, with what subject we were least conversant would answer that in theology, the tariff problem, but we do know that McKinley's Bill adds 50 per cent to the already onerous, and unnecessary duty on tin plate. It will yet meet the fate that the rebuke of the American people expressed at the ballot box justly entitles it to.

Mr. S. P. Britton had his hand terribly crushed in his job press last Tuesday. It will require some time before he can get on his feet. He has hired a printer and will continue in the business.

Hosts of relatives and friends all over the county and State will be pained to hear that death has again invaded the home of Mr. M. B. McGee and claimed as its victim, his only son, W. Courtney McGee, who lived in honor to his family, a devoted Christian and companionable citizen, and died with the positive assurance of a bright immortality. He was born August 2nd, 1865, joined Walnut Grove Baptist church at the age of twelve years and was educated at Erskine College. Graduated June, 1887, and taught a high school at Fruit Hill, Edgely county 1888-89. Secured a scholarship in the Normal University, Nashville, Tennessee, and was there when taken sick, returned home last week and was a sufferer from the effects of consumption until his death, Nov. 3rd.

Lewis Waller refused to be interviewed on the situation but does not withhold the fact that he is already preparing to vacate the post office at Due West.

Personally we are more than pleased with Tuesday's election, and we suppose the chagrin of many true Democrats. In this State, it is now being said, is a very real one. It is changed, to exuberant exultation, and will soon pass into oblivion in the face of the great Democratic avalanche, which swept over this section last Tuesday.

After the excitement incident to a heated campaign has subsided we expect to see an era of good feeling, a return of fraternal relations, and a more liberal attitude in this community. We will not despair, although that abominable thing or whatever it is, "Boycott" is still lurking around, in all its hideous ugliness. It is a thing that should place it beyond the pale of the English vocabulary. A hibred of communism and nihilism—a veritable bomb, if a fuse could only be traced, and it would explode in a war between Mr. Maguire, or Haymarket assassins. Yet it will not be down and always bobs up serenely without provocation. We are reliably informed that it is now in company with the "Boycott" in this community who have served notice on at least three of our merchants that unless they discharge certain clerks who voted for Haskell the papers will be stamped upon it, which was done by some previous owner of it, during its existence of thirty-two years. Who can explain it? The owners will not forward, prove property charges, and take it away.

It is said some young ladies have rather a novel, but effectual way of ridding themselves of too long callers, by saying, "I am in the apple orchard," and the young men are always "on time" in taking their leave. TROUPE.

A. M. Hill & Sons Locals.

Look at that immense stock of fruits and candies at A. M. Hill & Sons.

A. M. Hill & Sons will have ample accommodation of carriages and buggies to any part of the town. Bus will run regularly to meet all trains at each depot.

Delaware and Malaga grapes, also Florida oranges, at A. M. Hill & Sons.

If you wish the finest apples, cocoanuts and bananas this week go to A. M. Hill & Sons.

Everybody should remember that A. M. Hill & Sons keep the largest, and most varied stock of fancy groceries and fruits to be found in the up country.

A number of best prime meats on sale at A. M. Hill & Sons.

Mackerel, white fish, lake herring, boston blonies, and prepares cod fish at A. M. Hill & Sons.

Fresh buck wheat flour, and Syrup at A. M. Hill & Sons.

The finest maple syrup put up in handsome style, and for sale by A. M. Hill & Sons.

Fresh raisins, citron and currents at A. M. Hill & Sons.

A. M. Hill & Sons are selling buggies and carriages every day, but still their stock is full and complete.

Look out for the new train and bargains in looking at P. Rosenberg & Co.

Bring your cotton to the new glanery. A good sample guaranteed.

Remember that full weight are given at our counters for seed.

"Surry of Eagles Nest," cloth $2, post paid. A full line of School Books, blank books, pictures and picture frames. D. C. DUPE, Oct. 15, 1890. At Greenwood, S. C.

We now have in stock the finest assortment of Lamp Glass, and shades in Greenwood, hanging lamps at from $2.50 to $5. Stand lamps from 20 cts. to $5. Lee & Bailey, Oct. 15, 1890. At Greenwood, S. C.

Don't fail to see the nice selection of gold rings, watches, chains, &c., at Speed's Drug Store.

One can Thubbers 34 Roasted Coffee Just received at A. M. Hill & Sons.

MARRIED.

Married, Nov. 6, 1890, by Rev. J. B. Mue, Mr. G. T. SIBERT to Miss MARY L. MCCHERY, all of Bradley, S. C.

Married, on Sabbath morning, Nov. 2, 1890, by Rev. J. B. Mue, Mr. J. E. HENRY to Miss KINSON, of Edgely county, to Miss BETTIE HACKETT BELL, of Abbeville county.

Married, October 27, 1890, by Rev. Thos. S. Winn, D. D., Ph. D., L. L. D., Rev. ROBERT MILTON LATIMER, of South Carolina, and Miss ANNA FORD MCKEMIE, of Alabama.

BIRTHS.

At Abbeville, November 7, 1890, to Mrs. R. Mays Cleveland, a son.

Due West Alliance

Will meet on Friday, the 14th, at 2 p. m. A committee will be present and address the meeting on important matters. Every member should be present. B. C. DuPre, Sec'y.

Full stock brown and plaid homespun which will be sold cheap. Also full line of red flannels. White flannels, cotton flannels, callens, gingham, 10-4 sheeting and bed ticking. W. E. BELL.

I have all the new and stylish wraps in plush, silk beaver and diagonals. W. E. BELL.

I am daily receiving new millinery in hats, bonnets, ribbons and plushes, and can sell these goods at the very lowest prices. W. E. BELL.

Full line of ladies collars and cuffs. Ladies shirt fronts, corsets in thompson glove fitting goods, and in other styles in all the best makes. W. E. BELL.

Remember when you wish anything in millinery or dress goods I can save you money on your bill. I bought my stock before the rise in goods, and will give every customer a benefit. W. E. BELL.

I can not want any one who may tell you but if you wish to buy a cheap, but good quality, give me a call and I will make the prices to suit, even if I don't care to buy but 10 cents worth. I give the same attention to a customer that buys five cents worth, and I would like to the one that bought five dollars worth. So don't be afraid your bill will be too small to buy from me. W. E. BELL.

Good black and tan, dress kids, black and tan dress kids, black and tan dress kids, black and tan dress kids. W. E. BELL.

I have everything a lady will need for the winter in all the new and stylish goods and at the very lowest cash price. W. E. BELL.

LOWNESVILLE'S LETTER.

TROUPE TELLS OF MEN AND THINGS IN THE CITY.

Persons.—The Removal of Erskine College.—The Way to Suppress the Liquor Traffic.—The Election.—The Way to Send Them Home.

LOWNESVILLE, S. C., Nov. 10, 1890.

Mr. E. H. Mathews went to Anderson County House on Tuesday on business.

The election on Tuesday was a very quiet one, but little over half of our voting strength taking part.

Mr. E. H. Mathews vacated the Sturkey house Wednesday, moving his furniture to his own place. He and family are now domiciled for the present at the Moseley house.

Mr. E. W. Harper moved Wednesday into the Sturkey house.

Mrs. H. H. Harper and Miss Jennie Harper are now with Mr. E. W. Harper, where they will make their future home.

But very few of our people attended the gala days at Abbeville. The planters could not spare the time.

Mr. C. L. Clinkscales and Miss Allie Pruitt, of Due West, were married at the home of the bride's father Wednesday, and came to the home of the groom on Saturday.

Rev. T. A. Harris, of Athens, Ga., arrived here Saturday for a visit of two or three days. The Ridge church was formally dedicated yesterday, and the Rev. E. Beard performed the services. A large crowd was in attendance. Yesterday was an "off" day with all of our churches, there being no forenoon services except Sunday school. In any of them.

Mr. William Lesly, a life-long resident of this section, quietly breathed his last on Saturday. He was a man highly respected by all who knew him. His remains will be deposited in Long Cane cemetery to-day. He was about 65 years of age. He was an honorable, high-toned Christian gentleman.

There is now being built a new store near the depot, which will be occupied, when completed, by two of our most enterprising business young men. A new firm, of which more later.

The removal of Erskine College is attracting a great deal of attention just now. We would be very sorry for our country, and more particularly Due West, to lose that time-honored institution to accomplish this good purpose, of learning. Where located it has some advantages to our way of thinking, which it might not have at other places. There is not a more sober, and less dissipated community to be found anywhere, and these considerations alone should have great weight in determining so great a matter.

It is now being said, is a very real one. It is changed, to exuberant exultation, and will soon pass into oblivion in the face of the great Democratic avalanche, which swept over this section last Tuesday.

After the excitement incident to a heated campaign has subsided we expect to see an era of good feeling, a return of fraternal relations, and a more liberal attitude in this community. We will not despair, although that abominable thing or whatever it is, "Boycott" is still lurking around, in all its hideous ugliness. It is a thing that should place it beyond the pale of the English vocabulary. A hibred of communism and nihilism—a veritable bomb, if a fuse could only be traced, and it would explode in a war between Mr. Maguire, or Haymarket assassins. Yet it will not be down and always bobs up serenely without provocation. We are reliably informed that it is now in company with the "Boycott" in this community who have served notice on at least three of our merchants that unless they discharge certain clerks who voted for Haskell the papers will be stamped upon it, which was done by some previous owner of it, during its existence of thirty-two years. Who can explain it? The owners will not forward, prove property charges, and take it away.

It is said some young ladies have rather a novel, but effectual way of ridding themselves of too long callers, by saying, "I am in the apple orchard," and the young men are always "on time" in taking their leave. TROUPE.

A. M. Hill & Sons Locals.

Look at that immense stock of fruits and candies at A. M. Hill & Sons.

A. M. Hill & Sons will have ample accommodation of carriages and buggies to any part of the town. Bus will run regularly to meet all trains at each depot.

Delaware and Malaga grapes, also Florida oranges, at A. M. Hill & Sons.

If you wish the finest apples, cocoanuts and bananas this week go to A. M. Hill & Sons.

Everybody should remember that A. M. Hill & Sons keep the largest, and most varied stock of fancy groceries and fruits to be found in the up country.

A number of best prime meats on sale at A. M. Hill & Sons.

Mackerel, white fish, lake herring, boston blonies, and prepares cod fish at A. M. Hill & Sons.

Fresh buck wheat flour, and Syrup at A. M. Hill & Sons.

The finest maple syrup put up in handsome style, and for sale by A. M. Hill & Sons.

Fresh raisins, citron and currents at A. M. Hill & Sons.

A. M. Hill & Sons are selling buggies and carriages every day, but still their stock is full and complete.

Look out for the new train and bargains in looking at P. Rosenberg & Co.

Bring your cotton to the new glanery. A good sample guaranteed.

Remember that full weight are given at our counters for seed.

"Surry of Eagles Nest," cloth $2, post paid. A full line of School Books, blank books, pictures and picture frames. D. C. DUPE, Oct. 15, 1890. At Greenwood, S. C.

We now have in stock the finest assortment of Lamp Glass, and shades in Greenwood, hanging lamps at from $2.50 to $5. Stand lamps from 20 cts. to $5. Lee & Bailey, Oct. 15, 1890. At Greenwood, S. C.

Don't fail to see the nice selection of gold rings, watches, chains, &c., at Speed's Drug Store.

One can Thubbers 34 Roasted Coffee Just received at A. M. Hill & Sons.

Master's Sale.

The State of South Carolina,
ABBEVILLE COUNTY.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

James Seignious against James Rogers Jr., et al.—Foreclosure.

BY VIRTUE of an order of sale made in the above stated case, I will offer for sale at public outcry at Abbeville C. H., S. C., on SALE DAY IN DECEMBER, 1890, within the legal hours of sale, the following described property, situate in said State and County, to wit: All that lot or parcel of land, containing more or less, with all the buildings thereon, bounded by lands of Jeff. Floyd on the East, W. W. Holt on the South, and Mrs. J. A. Moore on the North and West;

Four (4) Acres,

Also, that tract or parcel of land, containing

Forty (40) Acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of T. C. Lipscomb, E. M. Lipscomb, J. H. Rice, Estate of Mrs. E. Cheatham and Jas. W. Feuche.

TERMS OF SALE—One half cash, balance on a credit of twelve months, with interest from day of sale, secured by bond of purchaser and mortgage of the premises. Purchaser to pay for papers.

J. C. KLUGH, Master.

Nov. 5, 1890, At

Master's Sale.

The State of South Carolina,
COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Jane L. Gordon, Admx., &c., against Mary W. Gordon et al.

BY VIRTUE of an order of sale made in the above stated case, I will offer for sale at public outcry at Abbeville C. H., S. C., on SALE DAY IN DECEMBER, 1890, within the legal hours of sale, the following described property, situate in said State and County, to wit: All that tract or parcel of land, known as part of the Jordan Tract, containing

One Hundred and Forty (140) Acres, more or less, bounded by lands of A. J. Ferguson, Thos. C. Perrin, Alexander McCalla and others;

Also, that tract or parcel of land, another part of the Jordan Tract, containing

One Hundred and Sixty (160) Acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of Mrs. Cheatham, Alexander McCalla and others;

Also, that tract or parcel of land known as the Long Cane Tract, containing

Eight and One-Half (8½) Acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of Mrs. Hughes, S. McGowan, Lot No. 1, and others;

Also, that tract or parcel of land known as the Home Tract, containing

Eight Hundred and Thirty-Nine (839) Acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of Samuel Cochran, Jesse Carlisle, Wm. Robertson, Edward Noble and others. This tract will be divided into three or more smaller tracts which will be sold separately. Plats exhibited on day of sale.

Also, that tract or parcel of land known as the Bowie Tract, containing

One Hundred and Thirteen (113) Acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of—

The Home Tract will be sold subject to the right of Misses Jane L. Gordon and Mary W. Gordon to retain possession of the dwelling house and appurtenances in accordance with the provisions of the will of R. C. Gordon, deceased.

TERMS OF SALE—One half cash, balance on a credit of twelve months, with interest from day of sale, secured by bond of purchaser and mortgage of the premises in each instance. Purchaser to pay for papers.

J. C. KLUGH, Master.

Nov. 5, 1890, At

Master's Sale.

The State of South Carolina,
COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

A. J. Clinkscales against Jesse M. Hall.—Foreclosure.

BY VIRTUE of an order of sale made in the above stated case, I will offer for sale at public outcry at Abbeville C. H., S. C., on SALE DAY IN DECEMBER, 1890, within the legal hours of sale, the following described property, situate in said State and County, to wit: All that tract or parcel of land, containing

Two Hundred and Forty (240) Acres, more or less, bounded by lands of J. H. Bell, North and East, South by lands formerly owned by Samuel Hunter, and West by lands now owned by L. C. Clinkscales and known as the Magnuder Land, the said 240 acres being known as the "Tolbert Land."

TERMS OF SALE—One half cash, balance on a credit of twelve months, with interest from day of sale, secured by bond of purchaser and mortgage of the premises, with leave to purchaser to pay all cash. Purchaser to pay for papers.

J. C. KLUGH, Master.

Nov. 5, 1890, At

Master's Sale.

The State of South Carolina,
COUNTY OF ABBEVILLE.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Theodore D. Trapier, Trustee, &c., against W. R. Richey et al.—Foreclosure.

BY VIRTUE of an order of sale made in the above stated case, I will offer for sale at public outcry at Abbeville C. H., S. C., on SALE DAY IN DECEMBER, 1890, within the legal hours of sale, the following described property, situate in said State and County, to wit: All that tract or parcel of land, containing

One Hundred and Thirty-Three (133) Acres, more or less, bounded by lands of Foster Anderson, Wade N. Tinsley and others;

Also, that tract or parcel of land, containing

Two Hundred and Seven Acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of T. Y. Martin, Townes Mabry and others.

TERMS OF SALE—One half cash, balance on a credit of twelve months, with interest from day of sale, secured by bond of the purchaser and a mortgage of the premises, with leave to the purchaser to pay all cash. Purchaser to pay for papers.

J. C. KLUGH, Master.

Nov. 5, 1890, At

Master's Sale.

The State of South Carolina,
ABBEVILLE COUNTY.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Joseph L. Hughey against John T. Duncan et al.—Foreclosure.

BY VIRTUE of an order of sale made in the above stated case, I will offer for sale at public outcry at Abbeville C. H., S. C., on SALE DAY IN DECEMBER, 1890, within the legal hours of sale, the following described property, situate in said State and County, to wit: All that tract or parcel of land, known as the Kellin Place, located on Long Cane creek, containing

Three Hundred and Seventy-Three (373) Acres, more or less, bounded by lands of S. B. Marshall, Thos. Waller, Estate of Thos. Chatham, Estate of Martin Hackett and Ellenburg.

TERMS OF SALE—One half cash, balance on a credit of twelve months, with interest from day of sale, secured by bond of purchaser and mortgage of the premises. Purchaser to pay for papers.

J. C. KLUGH, Master.

Nov. 5, 1890, At

Master's Sale.

The State of South Carolina,
ABBEVILLE COUNTY.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Alice S. Boyd against T. P. Paschal et al.—Foreclosure.

BY VIRTUE of an order of sale made in the above stated case, I will offer for sale at public outcry at Abbeville C. H., S. C., on SALE DAY IN DECEMBER, 1890, within the legal hours of sale, the following described property, situate in said State and County, to wit: All that tract or parcel of land, containing

Twenty-Six (26) Acres, more or less, bounded by lands of J. L. Covin, T. B. Baker, P. A. Gavin and others, being the lot in the town of Mt. Carmel.

TERMS OF SALE—One half cash, balance on a credit of twelve months, with interest from day of sale, secured by bond of purchaser and mortgage of the premises. Purchaser to pay for papers.

J. C. KLUGH, Master.

Nov. 5, 1890, At